MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Herbert E. Hetu
Assistant for Public Affairs
to the Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Meeting with Washington Journalism Center Members

1. The current attendees of the Washington Journalism Center will be visiting you Tuesday, May 17, at 2:30 p.m. They are participating in a conference on "Foreign Policy and Defense Issues." Julius Duscha (pronounced Doo-shay) is director of the center and will be with the group.

2. Attached is a copy of the Center's program listing the various speakers. Also attached is a list of the journalists who will be visiting you Tuesday. I am also attaching a fact sheet on the Center.

3. Of the participants, Freed and Gedda of the Associated Press and Gilmore of United Press International are familiar to us as they cover the Agency regularly as part of their security agencies beat. Richard Dudman of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch is also a regular; both he and his paper are often unfriendly toward the Agency. Note that five of the participants are editorial writers, including the N.Y. Daily News.

4. The meeting is to last no more than an hour. We suggest you talk for about 10 or 15 minutes informally, then open it for questions. Your topic is broad: "The Nation's Intelligence System." They would like to hear your own impressions of how you find the Intelligence Community and your role as DCI. No doubt other, more controversial items, will emerge in the questioning.

5. I will attend.

Herbert E. Hetu

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

On behalf of the Washington Society of Nieman Fellows, may I renew our invitation to you for cocktails, dinner and conversation in late June or early September.

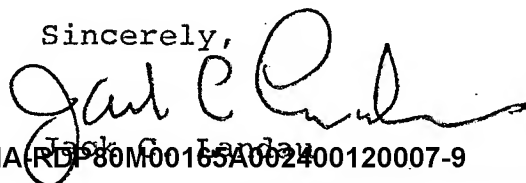

As you may know, there are more than 100 Nieman fellows in Washington, and we have over the years had several dinners a year. As opposed to other news oriented groups in Washington, the Nieman Fellows are not so much interested in hard news developments as in broader, philosophic and political questions about government -- in this case, of course, questions involving the institutional role to be played now and in the future by United States intelligence agencies.

As a former Rhodes scholar with a reputation for scholarly and analytical thought about government -- an attribute that is not easily found in many high government officials -- we would very much like to hear your views.

The format of the Washington dinners follows the format of the Nieman program in Cambridge, speakers are asked to talk about 15 minutes on any issue that interests them and then the floor is open for questions and answers on a deep background basis which means that nothing you say may be attributed to you or to the Agency.

We very much hope that you will consider our invitation, and I remain, on behalf of the Washington Nieman Fellows,

Sincerely,

EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT

THE STUDENT LEGAL FORUM

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA SCHOOL OF LAW
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA 22901

May 13, 1977

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
McLean, VA

Dear Admiral Turner:

Thank you for your letter of March 11, 1977, responding to my invitation for you to speak at the Student Legal Forum. I can easily understand the heavy demands that you have had "settling" into your new job, and I want to reiterate my invitation for you to come, as you suggested, in the fall, possibly in September.

As I mentioned in my last letter, most Forum programs are preceded by a dinner attended by Forum members and Law School professors. Following the speech we like to have our guest meet members of the University community at an informal reception. Forum programs are frequently held on Thursday evenings, but this is not a firm practice. I would appreciate knowing what day would be best for your schedule -- perhaps a Friday which would enable you to spend some time with your parents. In any case, it will be our pleasure to make all arrangements for your travel and for your stay in Charlottesville. We would also be honored to have Mrs. Turner and your parents as our guests.

Thank you for accepting our invitation. I look forward to meeting you in Charlottesville in the fall.

Sincerely,

Bill McCue
